WHY GO?

The setting is by the poolside area where it is enlivened with bright orange colours and a playful sea-inspired theme of fish scale walls, fish shaped bowls and hanging lights that are like fish eyes. Executive Chef Dan Moran is seriously good at reassuring the spiciness of the menus. There are a variety of dishes from noodle soups to curries to stir-fry's. There's a strong signature cocktail list, too, with creations like The Fighting Duck (plum jam, ginger and hoi sin, shaken with ruby port and reposado (barrel-aged) tequila, served over ice with cherry wood smoke).
