Note:

1. Tet or Vietnamese New Year: The actual dates vary from year to year according to the lunar calendar. From 2017 this has been officially a week long holiday and many businesses will close down for the full week. This is the busiest time of the year for traveling in Vietnam and hotels, flights and trains are often full. On the other hand shops, museums and restaurants may close or have limited opening hours. Local markets are usually closed and most 'experts' are unavailable during this period.
2. Public Holiday on Sunday 2nd September 2018 – observed by business holiday Monday 3rd September 2018
